Comments Report

---

1. Course Structure

1.5) Additional comments for items 1.1 - 1.4

- It was great how he was flexible with the schedule due to COVID-19 and willing to help us.
- Professor Arp's class was organized and easy to follow. I knew exactly what to expect every week.

2. Class Environment

2.4) Additional comments for items 2.1 - 2.3.

- This was the best on line experience I have had at JCCC. When does he teach again?
- Professor Arp's class was my first experience taking an online class. I was worried about being able to communicate with my professor and understanding what was going on at a given time, but I never encountered those difficulties in Professor Arp's class.

3. Instructor Responsiveness

3.4) Additional comments for items 3.1 - 3.3.

- He always responded quickly to my emails.

4. Effectiveness

4.3) Additional comments for items 4.1 - 4.2.

- His methods are effective because there isn't any useless reading or work.

5. Overall

5.2) Additional comments concerning this course.

- Again, I am so grateful that he was flexible with us during this time. My husband lost his job and my 1 year old couldn't go to daycare. It was truly a blessing.
- I took this class in person with Courtney Gustafson in the past -- the worst experience I have ever had. Needless to say I am glad you were straight to the point and invoked some thought and freedom in our discussion posts. I took this class for a core credit at KU, where my major has nothing to do with philosophy (other than 'engineering ethics', which is somewhat just common sense), so being able to understand the topics in a basic way without having to sacrifice time for my major classes was a big plus. Thank you so much Professor Arp.
- Great readings. Great discussions. Great tests. Great professor.
- Professor Arp has been exceptionally helpful during the COVID situation. He has done everything he can to give us as much flexibility in the course as possible while still maintaining exposure to the class material and the ability to learn a lot from the course. His response to the current events reduced a significant amount of stress and I cannot express how much I appreciate his awareness and how he prioritizes the wellbeing of his students.
- It really helped to out to be able to tackle work whenever i could this last half of the semester, while trying to get through my other classes as well.
